NJSIAA Basketball Refresher / Simulation

NEW -- Instructions to Receive Credit in Zebraweb -- NEW

Requirements: All officials in New Jersey must attend a Rules Interpretation Meeting and a yearly Rules Refresher Examination. For basketball, the testing instrument is the NJSIAA / IAABO Video Simulation that is given LIVE (in-person or virtual online) Follow the instructions below to receive credit.

Step 1) Attend your local chapter's NJSIAA Simulation either in-person or online as required by organization. If you are unable to attend your chapter's session, you can attend ANY sanctioned NJSIAA chapter's meeting to receive credit for this requirement.

Step 2) Make sure you have recorded your attendance per the chapter secretary's procedure for sign-in and completion. Keep a record of the date, location, and time of your completion.

Step 3) AFTER ATTENDING (and only after) you MUST login to the NJSIAA.org website using your personal Username and Password to RECORD completion by taking the ONE QUESTION CERTIFICATION test. Failure to complete this attestation question will result your Zebraweb Account being locked from receiving games. This simulation and other NFHS tests are no longer provided in Zebraweb and only on the NJSIAA.org website. Once you take the one question test, this will transfer to Zebraweb within a day or two. Be patient. If you have trouble logging in, contact the NJSIAA office directly or follow instructions to reset your password.

The following pages demonstrate some of the steps required on the NJSIAA.org website.
